SUNDAY A BIG DAY

FOUR BIG SERVICES AT BIG TABERNACLE BY TWO BIG MEN

(By Publicity Com.)

On Sunday there were four services at the Brown and Curry tabernacle besides an early morning prayer meeting and a big rally of the young peoples' societies of the ten churches co-operating. At the ten o'clock Sunday school rally the vast auditorium was packed, and again at the service immediately following an inspiring gathering greeted the famous evangelists. After erecting the largest auditorium ever attempted in this section the building committee now sees that even a larger tabernacle will be needed the next time Brown and Curry come to town.

In his inimitable style Evangelist Brown told the Sunday school scholars the story of Moses, referring to the great deliverer of his people as the greatest character in the Bible next to the Christ. Heb. 11:25 was quoted as the key to the character of this mighty man of God. Moses lived by faith. Moses made a deliberate choice for the highest and the best. Moses turned his back on the palace and cast in his lot with his own people who were slaves.

History records the success of the man who has strength of purpose enough to stand for the right. Success is not an accident. Where now the palaces of Egypt and all their glory? Buried 'neath desert sands. But when we enter heaven what shall we hear upon the lips of angelic hosts and all the redeemed? The song of Moses and the Lamb.

It was a powerful appeal to which almost 400 responded by walking forward to shake hands with the evangelist. And there was great joy in heaven as well as among the children of God.

At the morning service the noted gospel singer sang "When To the Cross I Turn My Eyes" sung to the tune of "The Rosary." It is hoped that Mr. Curry will again favor his hearers with this melting melody.

Rev. Johnson of the First Methodist church led in the morning prayer with great unction from on high.

Jer. 18th chapter was used by Rev. Brown for a convicting sermon on the Master Potter.

As the result of a visit to a pottery the evangelist was able to give a very original accounting of the lessons learned by personal observation of the interesting process.

First, it must be the right sort of material, which is hard to find. The greatest need of our nation is more strong Christian men and women. In a recent editorial of the Wall Street Journal it was declared that the nation needs above everything else a revival of old-time religion. Sam P. Jones, D. L. Moody, and Gypsy Smith were cited as famous examples of what can be done under God with rather unpromising material.

In the second place, the material has got to be worked. Brother Brown explained why he did not make an appeal for souls at the very beginning of a campaign. People have to be worked and convicted all the way down.

Thirdly, God is the Master Potter. Thrilling instances of what God has wrought in the conversion of abandoned lives were splendidly told by the fascinating preacher.

Fourthly, there is the drying and testing process. Sometimes a vessel develops a flaw which renders it useless. The right atmosphere is needed. People who come west and do not unite with a church, the folk who leave their letter in a trunk, etc., heard something that should do them good.

The little flaw in the vessel mars it. It is the little things in our lives that neutralize our usefulness in Christian work. The little foxes spoil the vine, etc.

In spite of the heavy afternoon rain at least one thousand returned to listen to the final address on the Holy Spirit.

Mrs. Harry Cammack sang very sweetly, "Jesus Can Give You Rest," and Rev. Rider led in prayer, talking face to face with God.

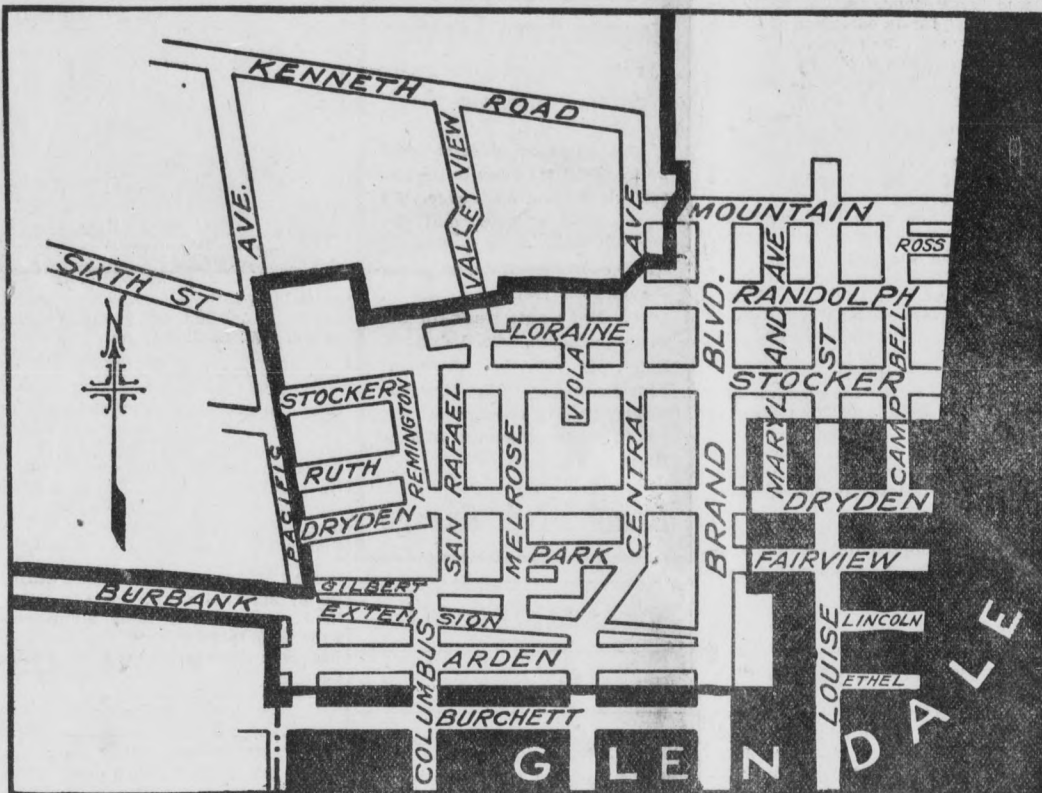

The familiar Rom. 12:1 was used as an opening passage on the discussion of Consecration.

It is one thing to have the Holy Spirit in fullness, another thing for the Holy Spirit to have the believer in fullness.

The spirit filled life is known by the fruit—Gal. 5:22, 23.

The difference between conversion and consecration was expressed in a nutshell. "In conversion you give up the bad things for God; in consecration you give up the good things to God."

Line on the north also extends northward about 7200 feet from Mountain street, connecting at this point with an east and west line at N. W. corner of the city.

NORTH GLENDALE PEOPLE PETITION TO BE INCLUDED IN GLENDALE CITY

About the middle of January, during a conversation between Mayor Lane of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Marsh of North Glendale, the suggestion was made that steps be taken to discover the sentiment of the people of North Glendale in regard to annexation to Glendale.

The following were asked to circulate petitions expressing a willingness and desire to annex to Glendale: Messrs. O. E. Wright, Geo. Marsh, J. K. Crawford, E. H. Tatum, W. A. Brown and Mrs. O. S. Sampson.

After a thorough canvass had been made, a meeting was called of those who circulated the petitions. The majority in favor of the movement was large and warranted definite action. A full discussion of the boundary line with Mayor Lane and City Manager Watson followed. Representatives of different sections were consulted and every interest considered.

On Feb. 4th a meeting of the organizers of the movement was held at the home of W. A. Brown, 913 San Rafael street. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Brown and on motion E. H. Tatum was appointed temporary chairman and Mrs. O. E. Wright temporary secretary. Every aspect of the situation was investigated and a decision reached as to the best location for the boundary line, considering fairness to all and the success of the movement.

Tatum, Marsh and Brown were duly appointed a committee of three to confer with the trustees of Glendale in regard to the acceptance of said line.

On Feb. 6th the committee met with the trustees of Glendale and agreed that the line set was satisfactory (see accompanying map). The city engineer was instructed to make the map, draw up the ordinance and prepare the official petition. The required number of signatures was readily secured. Monday night at the regular meeting of the trustees the petition was presented and the ordinance read calling for the election in the territory to be annexed on April 10.

Articles will appear in this paper from time to time stating facts and setting forth reasons for annexation. (Signed)

HALL BLACKSMITH SHOP CHANGES OWNERSHIP

Harry W. Hall sold his blacksmith shop on Maryland between Broadway and Third to A. J. Barnhardt of Azusa, Cal., last Thursday. Mr. Barnhardt took possession of the shop immediately after the deal was consummated and will continue the business along the same lines as his predecessor.

STARTLING EXPOSURE

LONG PROMISED REPORT BARES INEFFICIENCY IN OUR CITY GOVERNMENT

The long promised report of the investigating committee of "what is termed the Municipal League of the city of Glendale," was made public at the high school auditorium Monday evening.

There can no longer be any question as to the utter inefficiency and profligate extravagance of the present city administration, in as much as it was proved beyond the shadow of a doubt (copied from the records with names and distinguishing numbers) that under a previous administration the name of a former city clerk had been affixed to an affidavit on a city demand by means of a rubber stamp.

Verily, the mountain has labored long and the mouse is finally brought forth.

Most men make mistakes, sometimes serious, in their private business, and which are not in the line of efficiency and economy of their own private affairs. I might go farther and say that many, perhaps most, American families are run extravagantly, and without due regard to the future. We cannot look for perfection in the work of our public officials when we do not even approximate such perfection in our own work in our own interests, and if the intention is meritorious, we should not be too severe in our censure. However, in this case the offense is too glaring and may not be overlooked. That signature was not made in the good old orthodox way, with a goose quill and ink. It makes no difference that a person can do in a few minutes with the stamp what would require a long time with the pen, the misguided folks who consider that a factor making for efficiency and economy are at fault; it makes no difference that the courts legalize the use of the stamp (holding the owner of the name properly responsible for loss to others, if such occurs, etc.); it seems to make no difference that high officials use the rubber stamp in state and nation; the committee has spoken and the verdict stands. We hope each and every member will properly shy if a stray U. S. treasury note for $50 or $100 comes his way provided same has not the signature of the treasurer of the United States affixed thereto by pen and ink.

Seriously speaking, the report on the rubber stamp affidavit is not one to cause the official who made it to take second thought. It is the animus behind it that should be taken into consideration. Two or more hours of steady reading of what the committee found out by painstaking work and not one word on beneficial results to the citizens of Glendale from its municipal government. A minute investigation of the city's affairs along the line of efficiency and economy, yet not a word concerning the money saved and now being saved to the citizens in its public utilities and no opportunity given the citizens present at the meeting to discuss the report. How impartial and convincing! The people of Glendale should, in spite of their boasted claim to intelligence, hang their heads in

BURGLAR IN TOILS

MAN WHO ROBBED JOHNSTONS AND WESTS ARRESTED—CONFESES THEFTS

Thomas Carr, thirty-eight years old, was arrested in a cafeteria at Fifth and Hill streets, Los Angeles, Monday night after a hand-to-hand fight with four deputy sheriffs, and now languishes in the county jail. He has confessed to stealing $50,000 in money and jewels. Among his many jobs was the burglary of the Henry Johnston home in Glendale on the afternoon of the twelfth of February. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston were out of town and Mr. Johnston's sister, who is stopping in their home, went across the street to a neighbor's where she remained about an hour. During her absence Carr, "the master burglar," as he styles himself, ransacked the house and helped himself to $500 worth of jewelry and other articles.

Carr was the same artist who entered the home of William Herman West on December 30 and relieved Mr. and Mrs. West of $600 worth of valuables.

Chief George H. Herald of Glendale interviewed Carr in the county jail this morning, when he confessed to the two Glendale burglaries. Mr. Herald says Carr is a fine appearing man and talks very interestingly of his travels. He comes from New Brunswick, Canada, and like most men of his profession has traveled extensively. Five or six suitcases of jewelry were found in Carr's room, some of which was prepared for melting. The Johnstons and Wests have been able to identify some of their property. A handsome scarf pin set with a pearl and diamonds taken from the West home had the pearl replaced by a diamond and served to adorn the tie of the burglar. He also took a special fancy to several valuable rings which he had secured in the same way. The burglar boasted to Mr. Herald of the ease with which he is able to burglarize a house.

Carr has been the center of attention of the sheriff's office for a week. Diamonds pawned promiscuously about town furnished the first clue.

Carr says he made a trip every ten days either to San Francisco or San Diego with a load of stolen goods, which he disposed of to fences. Burglaries of a hundred different homes are laid to Carr's door.

HERALD ARRESTS BURGLAR

Chief of Police George H. Herald and Officer Lawrence on Saturday evening arrested R. H. Kenyon, an extra man with the Kalem company, for the theft of a gold watch from the pocket of a coat belonging to one of the men of the company in one of the dressing rooms at the studio. Kenyon has confessed to the robbery of the Gillette home, 146 East Third street, and it is thought other robberies may be traceable to him. It is found that he has a police record in Aberdeen, Wash., and also in Salt Lake City and his record will be investigated further.

Kenyon was a guest of Chief Herald at the police station until Monday, when he was conveyed to the county jail for safe keeping.

INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT AGAIN UNDER DISCUSSION

DR. BURROWS COMPLAINS TO TRUSTEES—NORTH GLENDALE ANNEXATION COMMITTEE PRESENT PETITION—CITIZENS GIVE THEIR VIEWS ON INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT LOCATION

The regular meeting of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale was held in the city hall Monday evening, March 1, 1915. Present: O. A. Lane, president of the board, and Trustees Charles Grist, J. S. Thompson, A. W. Tower and George Williams. Also present: T. W. Watson, city manager; J. C. Sherer, city clerk; W. E. Evans, city attorney; H. B. Lynch, manager of the public service department; Edw. M. Lynch, city engineer; G. B. Hoffman, city treasurer.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and the same were approved.

A communication was read from R. A. Borthick, asking for a permit to erect a brick garage at the corner of Colorado and Brand boulevards, the cost of the garage to be $6000. The permit was granted.

Dr. C. A. Burrows, who resides at 218 South Jackson street, again called the attention of the board to the dilatory actions of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company in not installing a phone in his residence. A number of weeks ago Dr. Burrows made a request to the board of trustees that action be taken to cause said telephone company to give him phone service and the matter was at that time referred to the city attorney, who notified the company of Dr. Burrows' complaint. Mr. Deal, the Glendale manager of the telephone company, appeared before the board at a subsequent meeting of the board and explained that a phone had not been installed for Dr. Burrows because of the fact that the cable extending in that district of the city was already overloaded with lines, and that a phone would be placed in the doctor's residence as soon as a new cable could be installed. The city attorney stated at Monday evening's meeting that he considered the explanation given by the telephone manager as being of no consequence, and that he considered it the duty of the board of trustees to take steps to have Dr. Burrows given telephone service. On motion the question was again referred to the city attorney, who was instructed to take the matter up with the telephone company immediately.

E. H. Tatum of the North Glendale district presented a petition to the board of trustees, signed by about two-thirds of the voters of the North Glendale territory, asking that that territory in which they reside be annexed to the city of Glendale. The petition was referred to the city attorney and the city clerk, who were instructed to ascertain immediately if it was in regular form. These gentlemen later reported that the petition was regular in every particular.

Bids for city printing for the ensuing year were read as follows: The Glendale Press submitted a bid of 32c per column inch for the first insertion and 32c per column inch for each succeeding insertion for publishing all notices not required to be published in a daily paper; the type to be set in brevier, 13 ems measure. The Glendale Evening News submitted a bid, agreeing to publish all notices required to be published in a daily paper, charge to be 35c per single column inch for first insertion and 35c per single column inch for each succeeding insertion, the type used to be brevier, 13 ems measure. On motion the Glendale Press was awarded the contract for publishing all notices not required to be published in a daily paper, and the Glendale Evening News was awarded the contract for publishing all notices to be published in a daily paper.

Mayor O. A. Lane brought up the matter of an industrial district. He stated that he wanted to be absolutely fair on the proposition and that for that reason had given all interested in the subject notice through the local papers that the location of the industrial section would have the final hearing Monday, March 1, but that he was not in favor of making one or two blocks an industrial district at this time.

Citizens present at the meeting were then asked by the trustees to express their views. C. D. Thom, representing considerable property, including the Judge Ross interests, gave a number of reasons as to why more industries should not be added to those at present located in the section bounded by Glendale avenue and Howard street and Second and Third streets. He mentioned the fact that wherever industries located they were detrimental to a residence section in that vicinity, and in other cities as well as Glendale no fine residences were erected in an industrial district, and made a proposition to give a lot to anyone who would build a home and live in it in the district under discussion.

Harry Chase brought out the fact that the proposed district was too small to allow any industries of any size, and that in order to accommodate the concerns that would want to move in, the territory would have to be extended to First street and west as far as Jackson and thereby encroach on school property at the First street school and the Intermediate school.

Mr. Ingledue asked that he might add his word of protest to the establishment of the proposed industrial section. He said that what property he owned was in that vicinity, but taking out his personal interest, there was a question in his mind whether it would be a help to the town as the two blocks were not enough to accommodate any large industries, and that certainly such a small area would not interest outside capital; that he thought a location along the Southern Pacific tracks would be much better.

Trustee Williams was answered by Mr. Ingledue, saying that Glendale is largely a retail and residence town and that in his estimation it would never have any large industries which would be interested in locating along the S. P. tracks, for the reason that all factories of any magnitude will establish themselves in Torrance and at the harbor.

Mrs. G. B. Woodberry answered this argument by stating that in her estimation the proposed site was inadequate; that personally she did not mind a little noise if it would help in building up Glendale; that the garage located near her residence often kept them awake at night, as well as making considerable noise throughout the day; that she would be the last one to complain for personal reasons, but thought that the future of Glendale depends on having an adequate site for large factories, and the fact that Tropic has the largest tile factory west of the Rocky mountains proves that large industries would locate here, and at least Glendale would be put on the map if a section was located along the S. P. tracks and a station established.

Then the proposition was brought up by the board as to the advisability of allowing Kent & Son to move to the proposed district without establishing it as such a district, and that since there are a number of similar concerns now in the district, the addition of Kent & Son's mill would make little difference.

Mr. E. U. Emery said that referring to the matter of Kent & Son moving to this section, that he would be the last one to put any obstacles in their path, but that the line would have to be drawn somewhere, and as only a few people object to having Kent & Son continue where they are now located, he for one could not see any reason why they could not stay in the present location, and that he understood that most of the property holders, that is, business property owners on Brand boulevard, have no objection. Mr. Emery further suggested that a committee of three be appointed to investigate the matter of securing a new industrial section and that they make a report to the board in six months. That while that is considerable time, if Glendale is put on the map by having a station located on the S. P. inside of six months it will be a step forward in good work. He said that an industrial district should be established in the near future, for if a temporary district is made anywhere, legal decisions in other localities prove that it would be next to impossible to move a concern if it owns the ground on which it is operating.

Trustee Tower and Mayor Lane said that they favored an industrial section on the west side, but that there was not sufficient territory along the S. P. tracks in the city of Glendale to locate one, and that in order that the city of Glendale might define such a territory as an industrial section, the people residing in that section would have to petition to the board and be annexed to Glendale.

Roy Kent said that they are willing to move to the proposed section near Glendale avenue, although naturally they would prefer to stay where they are; that they had come to Glendale with all their money in one pocket and had put all their property interests here and wanted to do business with Glendale people in the future as in the past; that they would move their place of business wherever designated, but that moving to the S. P. tracks at the present time was out of the question, as the S. P. freight rates are much higher than on the Salt Lake through the fact that this is not a competitive point.

The matter of establishing a temporary industrial district was then tobacco, etc. These things should be dropped at conversion.

Tobacco smokers were hit hard. "The man who smokes may make an angel some day, but he will be a stinking angel. For such will be needed a fumigating station between earth and heaven. I believe in a conversion in which old things are done away and behold all things become new." There were many hearty amens.

In consecration we bring to God every good thing. Rom. 12:1 teaches that we should bring our bodies first. Also, our time and our house should be consecrated to God.

The appeal to the young to give their lives to God for service resulted in a response from many strong characters. Undoubtedly lives of great usefulness commenced today afternoon when kneeling at the altar. Service conducted by Rev. C. Irving Mills, D. D., of Glendale, will give a talk on "How Shall We Protect Our Boys and Girls Morally?"

All parents and friends are cordially invited. Tea will be served by Mesdames Jones, Beamon and Rosdahl.

DORAN STREET MOTHERS TO BE ENTERTAINED—P. T. A. TO BE FORMED
On Thursday, March 4, the mothers of the Doran street children are to be entertained by the teachers, Miss Lois Hinch, principal, and Miss Mary J. Collins, at the school. On the same afternoon the federation president, Mrs. J. H. Toll, will organize a Parent-Teacher circle for the school. Much interest in this new circle to be shown by the mothers of the children in the school, who realize what a valuable adjunct such an organization can be to the school.

An unoccupied room on the second floor will be used for the meetings. This has a pleasant outlook westward and is seated with folding chairs, so that all who come will have a comfortable seat.

Daily refreshments will be served during the afternoon and a "get acquainted" "pull together" spirit will be the result to be sought for from the meeting. Anyone desiring to attend, whether connected with the school or not, will be made welcome.

CONFERENCE OF MOTHERS
At the convention of the superintendents of schools of California held in Riverside in December, 1914, the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, that the superintendents of California in convention assembled have received the greeting extended by the California Congress of Mothers and gladly welcome their cooperation and support in the education of the children of California.

We believe that all progressive communities will hasten to combine the home forces with the school force in every possible way in order to unite in the care of children and in the promotion of their culture and development.

We further welcome the co-operation of Parent-Teacher associations in acquainting the communities of California with the real needs of the children, thus helping to obtain the larger support that the schools must have to meet the new problems before them.

We further wish to express our appreciation of the excellent judgment shown in their support of organized authority and we commend to the boards of education the advisability of meeting all Parent-Teacher associations with most cordial welcome as the part of the community most vitally interested in the matters officially in the hands of boards of education.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY
A very pleasant surprise was that given for Mrs. Wilmot Parcher of 728 West Eighth street on Saturday evening, when a number of friends came with cakes and ice cream, flowers and candy and took possession of the home while she was out for a few moments. The occasion was Mrs. Parcher's birthday and the surprise was complete. Many flowers were placed about the rooms and a delightful little program was given, which Master Carol Parcher opened by a reading to his mother. Then Mrs. Hinan gave several select readings and Master Forest Jordan played two beautiful violin solos. Mr. Parcher and Mr. Lorentz finished with a cyclone farce as burnt cork artists, and when everyone had laughed till they could laugh no more, refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour was passed.

Among the guests of the occasion were Mrs. Winslow and son, Mr. Will Winslow; Mrs. Edgar Leavitt, Mrs. Caroline Ainsworth, Miss E. L. Ainsworth, Mrs. Mary Brooks, Mrs. Hinan, Miss May White, Mr. and Mrs. Lorentz, and Master Forest Jordan, all of Glendale; Mr. F. M. Parcher and Miss Pearl Parcher of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jackson of Montebello, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Parcher; Mrs. Wm. Lynch and Mr. Raymond Lynch of Los Angeles, and of course, Mr. and Mrs. Parcher.

Every man seeks for truth; but only God knows who has found it. Lord Chesterfield.

GALT SIGNED UP
John Galt, the local semi-pro pitcher, who has been trying out with the Los Angeles baseball club, attached his signature to a contract Monday, which means he will undoubtedly play with the Angel team.

laid on the table and Mr. Kent applied for a permit to move their mill to the location of their present warehouse and to use as a warehouse the present location of the mill. This matter will be brought up next Monday evening for more extended consideration.

City Attorney Evans then appeared before the board and read the notice of election regarding the annexation of Casa Verdugo to Glendale, the notice of which will appear in the News tomorrow.

A communication was then received from Staats & Co. of Pasadena asking for an extension of thirty days in which to dispose of water bonds, which was given on the condition that the firm would market $87,000 of the bonds.

Harry Lynch, manager of the public service department, asked permission to loan $1000 from the public service fund to the water bond fund, which was granted.

The demands were then read and referred to the auditing committee.

On motion the city manager was instructed to inquire as to the location and cost of installing and furnishing comfort stations in the business section of Brand boulevard and the business section of Broadway near Glendale avenue.

An ordinance for the opening and widening of Broadway from Everett street to Eagle Rock road was taken up for final reading. Same was adopted and is published in another column of this issue of the Evening News.

A resolution of intention was presented and adopted for the improvement of Hawthorne street and a portion of Central avenue. The same is published elsewhere in this issue of the Evening News.

COMMITTEE'S REPORT

According to a previous announcement several hundred citizens of Glendale assembled in the High School Auditorium Monday evening to listen to a written report of the findings of the committee that had been appointed by the Municipal League of the city of Glendale to investigate as to the city's expenditures. As the report is to be published in full in Wednesday's issue of the Evening News no lengthy account in today's issue is necessary.

The meeting was called to order by Russell, chairman of the league, who stated the object of the meeting. A short address was given by P. S. McNutt, a member of the committee. The report was read by T. W. Doyle, secretary of the Municipal League. P. S. McNutt, R. A. Petterson, T. W. Doyle, W. A. Anderson, C. E. Stanley, and S. A. Davis, all being members of the investigating committee, occupied chairs on the stage.

TROPICO

Mrs. Margaret Jenkins, president of the Kensington club, auxiliary to N. P. Banks Women's Relief Corps, announces that an all day meeting will be held in G. A. R. hall Thursday, March 4. The event celebrates the first anniversary of the club and Thursday's celebration promises to be a most joyous one. Each member has been furnished a small silk bag, into which she has been requested to deposit as many pennies as she is years old. These bags will be handed the secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Juliana Hayes. Another interesting, as well as appetizing feature of the day's program, will be the chicken pie dinner. All attending this dinner, who are not members of the club will be asked thirty-five cents for enjoying the delicious menu that Mrs. Julia Sanders and her committee are preparing. Following dinner a program will be given, while the ladies enjoy the afternoon with their art needlework. Mrs. Jenkins requests that the members as well as guests remember that the dinner will be served at twelve o'clock, Thursday, March 4.

Mrs. J. Edward Bahrenberg of Twin Pines is enjoying a brief visit in Redlands as the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Norman Bahrenberg.

Mrs. John T. Kirkham, violinist, and son Mr. Will Kirkham, cornetist, will assist at the concert to be given in Trinity Auditorium Friday evening.

The legion of friends of Mrs. Adam Paul, of Gardena avenue, will regret to learn that she is seriously ill at the home of her sister in Hemet where she has been visiting the past few months.

Sad indeed were the funeral services of the late Clarence Chandler that were held from the Tropic Methodist Episcopal church yesterday afternoon and were attended by a large and sorrowing concourse of friends. The services were conducted by Rev. R. T. Smith, pastor. The pall-bearers who were six actors who were with Mr. Chandler Friday when he was accidentally killed, were Hosea Steelman, Milton Brown, George Cole, James Griswold, Robert Fleming and M. A. Harris. The interment occurred in Forest Lawn cemetery. Many beautiful floral tributes attested the love and sympathy of legions of friends of Mr. Chandler as well as the bereaved family.

Mr. Lassen is not a destructive Vesuvius or Aetna. Still, it would not be a desirable next-door neighbor.

BUSINESS OF SERVICE

"Business," as generally spoken of, refers to the buying and selling activities of a limited class of men. Really, business is limited by nothing but the limits of population. Every man, woman and child in a civilized community is financially interested in the business of the community. Business men, in the true sense, are really employees of the public, hired on a commission basis to perform a public service. Broad-minded business men are glad to recognize this truth. The outcry against "governmental interference with business" comes from men who have failed to realize their real place in the world. Their formidable phrase means simply that the public, business' silent partner, is beginning to take an active interest in their own affairs. The public suffers through the bad kind of business and profits by the good kind of business, and is abundantly justified in discouraging the one and encouraging the other. Behind "governmental interference with business" is the thrust of a mighty force as irresistible as the tides, overthrowing the business of piracy and adventure, and establishing the business of service.—San Francisco Bulletin.

Nate Desky, who has been visiting his brother, Salo Desky, of 139 South Kenwood, returned to his home in Colorado Monday evening. Mr. Desky was very favorably impressed with Southern California and was loud in his praise of Glendale and does not hesitate in saying that what people in the East read of this country is not exaggerated nor does it even give it justice.

Mrs. C. M. VanDyke of 1430 W. Third street entertained the Pioneer club on Monday. All members of the club were present and a delightful afternoon was enjoyed by all, the principal occupation being needlework. Mrs. Chappell also sang a couple of numbers, and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the afternoon. The next meeting of the Pioneer club will be at the home of Mrs. Andrea on Pioneer Drive.

Mrs. W. A. Gibson of 718 west 9th street entertained with a luncheon today for the following ladies: Mrs. Ben. C. Tyler, Mrs. Walthrop, Mrs. Bullock, Mrs. Jas. Walter Reed and Mrs. Carrie Howe, all of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Harry Taylor of Eagle Rock. The house was beautifully decorated in gold and white and the attractive luncheon was served at a table dainty with blossoms of the same colors. The afternoon was spent in needlework and Mrs. Gibson gave several interesting readings.

shame at having used their franchise to put such men in office. And now one further word in regard to the alleged irregularities in the city demands. It is now in order to have a committee appointed to go back still farther, turn over pages in the records and find out how much the city saved in refusing to pay certain items a second time in demands for printing and in refusing to be coerced into paying 72 cents an inch for legal publications which was afterward said to be worth only 15 cents by the party who wanted the 72 cents. G. T. CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Vesper of 907 Lomita avenue entertained the G. T. club on Saturday evening. The decorations for the occasion were very attractive. In the dining-room the table was centered by a low cut bowl of violets and the favors were George Washington hats for the ladies and flags and hatchets for the gentlemen. Calla lilies and hyacinths were profusely used in the other rooms, where progressive five hundred was played throughout the evening, after which the dainty refreshments were greatly enjoyed. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Crane, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Waite, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Roman, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Naudain, Mrs. Henry Stockbridge and the host and hostess.

Hosea Steelman, tyler.
Wm. Herman West, representative to national convention.

NEW ATHLETIC FIELD

The work of laying out the new athletic field back of the high school is to be started at once, the work of surveying to be done under the direction of Prof. F. R. Morse and his surveying class, consisting of Chase Storey, Homer Bullard and Ben Nichols. The graded track will be an oval, 880 feet long and will have a straight-away 15 feet wide and 100 yards long, while inside the track will be located the baseball diamond, handball and volley-ball courts and two basketball courts. The two tennis courts will remain outside the field, which is to be inclosed by a fence or a hedge. A grandstand is to be built, 150x30 feet, facing the straight-away, and it will seat 800 people. The work is being directed by Coach Wight.

GUESTS AT PARCHER HOME

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jackson of Montebello are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Parcher of 728 West Eighth street. Mr. Jackson is a live business man who came from Thies River Falls, Minnesota, four years ago, where he sold out his large hardware store. On coming to California he invested in an orange ranch about three and a half miles east of Whittier. This ranch was in a run-down condition, but Mr. Jackson repaired the place, built an attractive little bungalow, with grass and flowers around it, and in less than one year sold the ranch for $6000 more than he paid for it, showing that there is money to be made in California orange ranches if they are properly handled. Since that time he has made a trip to South America and on his return purchased a lemon grove near Montebello, which he is bringing up to good condition. Mr. Jackson is a descendant of Stonewall Jackson and seems to be made of a similar material as the old fighter who did not stop at obstacles.

EXPRESSION OF APPRECIATION

On Friday, Feb. 26, was held the last parliamentary drill for P. T. A. members for the current year. Nearly all the members of the class were present. Mrs. P. S. McNutt, parliamentarian for the federation, presided. The lesson was largely in the nature of a drill on the work which Mrs. McNutt has presented in the course of the series of lessons.

In expression of the appreciation of the faithfulness, patience and capability of the parliamentarian, the federation president, Mrs. Toll, on behalf of the class, presented Mrs. McNutt with a beautiful bouquet of white stock and golden California poppies. These special flowers were chosen because of their colors, white and gold being the colors of the Congress of Mothers, of which all Parent-Teacher organizations are branches.

The honor for attendance went to Mrs. N. C. Kelley, president of the Central avenue P. T. A. at Casa Verdugo, who has attended all the classes, although the days have been stormy many times.

NORTH GLENDAL E

The many friends and acquaintances of Mrs. C. H. Cunningham of 1013 Fairview avenue will be very glad to know that she has recovered from the illness that confined her to her home for the past fortnight and is able to be out again.

Mrs. N. R. Browne of 1620 Stocker street, with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Brown, Mr. Herbert Brown and their two children, also Mr. Harry Browne, motored to San Pedro last Sunday and were guests of Mr. Herbert Brown's father, Mr. John Brown of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Menzo Williams of 1325 North Central avenue entertained at breakfast last Sunday morning Dr. and Mrs. McDowell of Pasadena and Mr. and Mrs. William Powers of Occidental boulevard, Los Angeles. Both parties motored to North Glendale and thoroughly enjoyed the delicious New England breakfast that was served them by the genial host and charming hostess, who are so well known for their hospitality.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Fairchild of 1321 Arden avenue entertained at an informal dinner party on Sunday Miss Ethel Webb of Burbank, Mr. Maxfield Stanley and Mr. M. E. Thompson of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Dewey and family, who for the past year have occupied Mr. Jack Wilder's house at 1660 Ruth street, left Monday morning for San Francisco, where they will visit the exposition, and from there will go back to Girard, Penn., their former home, where they will remain permanently. Mr. Dewey having secured a position with the Nickel Plate railroad, where he formerly was employed for several years.

The committee on annexation of North Glendale, consisting of E. H. Tatum, George H. Marsh and W. A. Brown, met with the Glendale city trustees Monday night and presented the final petition to the board. They were pleased to present the names of two-thirds of the electors in the territory to be annexed. The committee met with a cordial reception and were very much pleased with the courtesy extended them. It was decided that an election be called for Saturday, April 10, the polling place to be at the corner of Brand and Dryden, the election officers to be made known later. The committee wishes to express appreciation of the kindness of Glendale city officials who rendered them every assistance in their work as a committee. Property owners in North Glendale are enthusiastic over the annexation movement and wish the election to be held as soon as legally possible.

USEFUL LESSON IN THIS FOLLY

The tailor who starved himself to death while seeking to restore his health, showed anything but sense. But in one way his extraordinary feat of sixty-two days ought to be of use to others. For it proves that numbers of castaway and marooned persons die from mingled fear and hunger rather than from hunger alone, says an exchange.

The tailor has proved that a man who keeps his nerves steady and conserves his vital force can go without food for weeks longer than it usually takes hunger and fright to kill the trapped victims.

And in many instances, holding out a little longer would have brought rescue to those who needlessly perished.

The best way to keep neutral is to center our attention upon the day's work, and forget the great war, so much as is possible.

President Wilson is doing his best to steer the American ship of state so that it will not be torpedoed or run afoul a contact mine.

EAR DRUMS AND DROWNING

Sudden death of swimmers has never been explained satisfactorily, but it is generally assumed that it is due to cramps that affect the respiratory muscles. The Medical Record says there is another theory that "has never received the attention that it merits." This is that cold water penetrating the ear sets up an irritation in the delicate passages of the inner ear. It cites an address delivered by Dr. Guettich before the Berlin Otological society in which he revived this theory.

The irritation of the labyrinth of the inner ear by cold water might cause sudden paralysis, just as a shock to it through a sharp blow on the chin will cause a "knockout." The symptoms of the swimmer and the fighter are similar. They can make motions, but cannot direct them; they may become temporarily unconscious. In the case of the swimmer, of course, drowning follows unless some one helps him.

The Medical Record says that persons with perforated ear drums are those chiefly menaced by this accident, although it may occur to others. And this in spite of the fact that children with large perforations of the ear drum often swim and dive with impunity.

FAULT ON BOTH SIDES

The demands of the reading public upon daily newspapers for sensational news have been clearly demonstrated during the past two weeks when the details of a breach of promise suit, involving riches, an actress, and many indecencies, have been portrayed in column after column on the front pages of our papers. Some would censure the newspapers for devoting their space to the airing of indecencies, and while perhaps there is a reproachable characteristic in Los Angeles newspaper publishers that permits them to cater to the whims of the reading public, yet the real fault lies with the reading public in demanding such news. No newspaper owner in Los Angeles has ever been accused of running his paper for the sake of a principle, and we are doing them no injury, we think, when we say that they are engaged in their business, as is most every other man in his business, for the profits which can be made therefrom. So when these newspaper owners notice that their newspaper sales greatly increase when they have a good scandal to portray on their front pages and that their greatly decreased when there is an apparent lack of stories of indecencies, it is not surprising that they print the scandal.

It has been of such interest in this paper, the readers of which permit it to publish only that which is fit to print and will not to study the demands of the average reading public. W. J. Hearst has been accused of a multitude of sins, but did you ever stop to think that the power, which W. J. Hearst has, comes from the power which the people give him. The chief trouble with Hearst is that he is a little more money-mad than the average publisher, and in doing those things which make money for him he steps over the bounds of propriety within which others might keep. Hearst prints stories of sensations, scandals, crimes and indecencies in his papers because his experience has taught him that the greatest number of people will buy the papers in which such things are printed. He knows that greater circulation means more advertising at higher rates and, therefore, the sensations, Hearst is perhaps to be censured for his weakness in being willing to sacrifice public morals by portraying indecencies for gain, but more than he is to be censured, is the public to be pitied for its weakness which demands such news.—Hollywood

FAIR WARNING

The lanky youth who occupied a seat in a passenger coach protesting in sticking his head and shoulders out of the window. The brakeman was passing through the coach and he touched the youth on the back:

"Better keep your head inside the window," advised the brakeman.

"I kin look out the window if I want to," answered the youth.

"I know you can," warned the brakeman. "But if you damage any of the ironwork on the bridge you'll have to pay for it!"—Cincinnati Enquirer.
